

Non-disclosure agreement, Study Association Proto

For the activities I undertake for Study Association Proto I hereby confirm that I will adhere to the literal contents as much as the intended meaning of the following rules and regulations.

1. I understand that with the activities I undertake for Study Association Proto I may receive additional privileges on the ICT systems of Study Association Proto. These include, but are not limited to: the financial administration, the member administration, documents of the current and previous boards, documents of committees, elevated access to ICT applications, access to configuration files, credentials and administrator level access to servers.
2. I acknowledge that use of these additional privileges is intended for the execution of my activities for Study Association Proto, and not for my or somebody else's personal gain. I also acknowledge that these additional privileges can enable me to perform various actions. I confirm that I will always use my privileges to act according to the law, the statutes and rules and regulations of Study Association Proto, and to improve the good spirit of Study Association Proto.
3. I understand that information I get access to may be protected by the Dutch law for protection of personal information (wet bescherming persoonsgegevens). I confirm that I will treat this information in accordance with that law. I furthermore confirm that when using personal information for communication, I will follow all relevant Dutch laws and regulations for (electronic) communication.
4. I confirm that I will never make public private information and/or knowledge that gained via either the information or privileges I got access to, without permission from the board of Study Association Proto. Only when I am absolutely positive that publication will not hurt individuals, Study Association Proto or the security and/or integrity of the ICT systems of Study Association Proto, am I allowed to publish this information, under my own name and for my own responsibility.

Compliance with these rules and regulations start the moment I receive any of the additional privileges and/or access rights, and continue also after termination of my activities for Study Association Proto and termination of my additional privileges and/or access rights.
